

FEBRUARY: BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Simone de Beauvoir Institute invites you to a

Symposium on “bell hooks,
Cultural Transformation and Racism”

Dr. Chantal Maille, Principal of the Simone de Beauvoir Institute, will introduce the symposium. The new bell hooks video, “Cultural Criticism and Transformation” will be shown. Women’s Studies lecturer Brenda Rowe will moderate the symposium. Panelists will include: Edina Bayne, business woman and community activist; Gemma Raeburn-Baynes, workplace equality at the Bank of Montreal; Bernadette Charles, poet; Maria Mensah, Women’s Studies lecturer and Ph.D. communications student; Brenda Paris, Professor at Dawson College; Dr. Lorna Roth, Communication Studies Professor; and Elcho Stewart, President of the Network of Black Business and Professional Women.

A book display will be provided courtesy of Lyda Peters, Ethnic Origins Bookstore.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13
2170 BISHOP, ROOM 1C1
1 - 4 P.M.

Information: 848-2373